Planned maintenance affecting BSC Central Systems: Saturday 24 June to Sunday 25 June 2017

What is happening?

There will be planned maintenance taking place between 23:00 (BST) on Saturday 24 and 05:00 (BST) on Sunday 25 June 2017, which may have an intermittent impact on BSC Central Systems.

How will I be impacted?

Please note that this planned maintenance may have an intermittent impact on all BSC Central Systems.

As the Energy Contract Volume Allocation Agent (ECVAA) may be affected, parties should ensure that all notifications are submitted before this planned maintenance period.

The ECVAA Web Service (EWS) may also be unavailable for short periods.

The BMRS website may experience delays in receiving, loading and publishing data as well as via the API and Data Push services. In addition, users of the TIBCO service may see a delay in the publishing of TIBCO messages via their High Grade Communications Lines.

REMIT users may be unable to submit files via the ELEXON Portal for intermittent periods.

Do I need to take any further action?

No. If you have any questions please contact bscservicedesk@cgi.com.
